I have examined the books of the BPW/ Maine Futurama Foundation for the Year-Ended May 31, 2018 and have found the accounting accurate and in order.

The bank statement has been balanced to the checkbook and has been reconciled. The income and cash disbursements agree with the ledger and the checkbook.

Sincerely,

Alyson deWildt

Thirtieth Maine Women’s Hall of Fame

The Maine Women’s Hall Fame celebrated the Thirtieth Annual Induction Ceremony and Luncheon Buffet on Saturday, March 16, 2019 at the University of Maine Augusta. The luncheon was served at the Fireplace Lounge, in the Randall Student Center, and Induction Ceremony at the Jewett Hall Auditorium. Two outstanding Maine women were inducted: Darylen McQuirk Cote of Caribou and Governor Janet T. Mills of Farmington.

Darylen is a champion for women’s health, equity and education. She is also a long-time social justice advocate for opportunities and policies that lift people from poverty and improve the lives of women and girls in Maine. Darylen was nominated by Kathryn J. Olmstead, University of Maine.

Janet T. Mills is the first woman Governor of Maine, first woman Attorney General of Maine, first women District Attorney of New England, native of Farmington. She is also a trailblazer, poet, and tireless fighter for Maine people. Governor Mills was nominated by Whitney Parrish, Maine Women’s Lobby.

The Maine Federation of Business and Professional Women’s Clubs established the Maine Women’s Hall of Fame in 1990. The Hall of Fame is dedicated to women who made outstanding contributions to improving opportunities for all Maine women. It is located in the Bennett D. Katz Library at the University of Maine at Augusta. The University donates the space and is a co-sponsor.

Last fall nomination forms and letters were mailed out to BPW/members, past BPW state presidents, and to other statewide organizations, and newspapers. An article and a nomination form are on the UMA’s and BPW/Maine Futurama Foundation web site.

The three criteria for nomination are (1) woman=s achievements have had a significant statewide impact, (2) she significantly improved the lives of women in Maine, and (3) her contribution has enduring value for women. Judith Abbott, UMA and Lynne Kaplowitz, Maine Family Planning, served as Co-chairs of the nominating committee and coordinated the meeting of the judges.

Twelve hundred invitations to the Hall of Fame ceremony and luncheon were distributed to all BPW/Maine Futurama Foundation members, a list of invitees from UMA, a list from both inductees. In addition, invitations were sent to statewide organizations, businesses and individuals; college and universities; members of the Maine House and Maine Senate, members of our U.S. Congressional delegation, previous Hall of Fame inductees and the judges, and newspapers and TV stations. Representative Lois Galgay Reckitt and Senator Eloise Vitelli helped distribute Hall of Fame invitations at the Maine Legislature.
Prior to the Induction Ceremony Ronda Crosson, Mary and Michael Hammond, Lynn Soucy, and Denise Waldren greeted guests at the Registration Table. At the luncheon buffet greetings were extended by Myra Chaloult, President, BPW/Maine Futurama Foundation. At the Induction Ceremony greetings were extended by Linda Huff, and Marilyn Ladd Co-Chairs of the Maine Women’s Hall of Fame. Greetings were also extended by Sheri Fraser, Dean of Students, University of Maine Augusta the University of Maine Augusta and Carol Souviney, a member of the original Hall of Fame organization committee.

Special greetings and congratulations were extended by Michelle Michaud, U. S. Office of Senator Susan Collins and Edie Smith, U. S. Office of Senator Angus King, Skeek Frazee, U.S. Office of Representative Chellie Pingree and a letter from U.S. Office of House of Representative Jared Golden.

Kathryn J. Olmstead served as moderator for the Induction Ceremony for Darylen McQuirk Cote. Presenters were Peaches Bass, Maine Department of Labor; Karen Keim, Director TRIO Educational Opportunity Centers, Maine Talent Search, University of Maine; and Fran Mullin, Director Healthy Northern Kennebec. Presentation of the certificate was made by Linda J. Huff, Co-chair of the Maine Women’s Hall of Fame. Remarks were given by Darylen McQuirk Cote. Presenters for Governor Janet T. Mills were Peter Mills, Executive Director Maine Turnpike Authority and Linda Pistner, Deputy Chief Council. The presentation of the certificate was made by Marilyn V. Ladd, Co-chair, Maine Women’s Hall of Fame. Remarks were given by Governor Janet T. Mills.

Harpist Mellori Worthen, of Uniquely Music provided music and during the luncheon buffet. Karen Biser sang “Bread and Roses” and pianist Mary Canning played “I Am Woman” during the Induction Ceremony.

Special thanks go to all those who made donations to the event and their names are included in a special listing in the program booklet. Several individuals associated with UMA provided untold and innumerable hours of assistance, especially Sheri Fraser, Bill Starrett, Andrea Thorne, Doug West and the Facilities Staff at UMA, Linda Huff, Michael and Mary Hammond, Denise Walden, Ronda Crosson and Myra Chaloult. Members of the BPW/Maine Hall of Fame Committee, Judith Abbott and Lynne Kaplowitz, Co-chairs Judging Committee. BPW/Maine Past State Presidents, Futurama Foundation trustees assisted during the day of the event.

This year we have honored two more remarkable women who have made a difference in Maine women’s lives.
